

Innovative solutions for the Minerals and Waste sectors, combining leading technical capability with regulatory understanding.

Stantec's Cradle to Grave approach to a site's life-cycle and our multidisciplinary capability, ensures technically sound and commercially focused solutions provided at the right time.

Design with community in mind

Cradle to Grave

Taking a holistic view of mineral extraction and waste management activities, we guide our clients through the lifecycle of a site.

Services

Minerals and waste planning Coordination of planning applications	EIA/ROMP Multidisciplinary support	Abstraction licensing Regulatory advice, application preparation and submission for dewatering and supply	Permitting Application and advice for recovery and disposal, discharge, permit surrender, etc.	Environmental compliance Data collection, management and reporting
Regulator liaison Direct access to regulatory decision makers	Risk assessments HRA preparation and review, coal mine risk assessment, etc.	Geotechnical services Slope stability, foundations, etc.	FRA Basic and complex, 1D-3D hydraulic modelling	Drainage design Outline and detailed design, drainage modelling
Engineering services Above and below ground construction design and management	Water supply Resource assessment, borehole design, etc.	Water treatment design Settlement, process water treatment	Expert Witness In house specialist capability

For more information contact:

Andrew Tait

Principal Consultant

Direct: +44(0) 1743 276139

Email: andrew.tait@stantec.com

Connect with us

stantec.com/uk